MEMORANDUM OF TELEPHONE CONVERSATION WITH CONGRESSMAN JACK KEMP

DATE AND TIME: 12 October 1976, 10:35 a.m.

Jack Kemp called me and told me that a friend of his, a man with whom he and Senator Henry Jackson correspond, called him to give him some intelligence. The friend stated that the head of Martin Marietta had told him that the word was all over Berlin that the Soviets were storing US grain in very large quantities. Kemp felt that this would be some kind of a scandal if true. I told him that the Intelligence Community was trying to follow Soviet storage and that we would be glad to give him some information on this at any time. I thanked him for calling.
